Manchester Airport Community Trust Fund	The Manchester Airport Community Trust Fund is a registered charity and was established to promote, enhance, improve and protect both the natural and built environment in our local community. The Trustees award grants of a maximum of £3,000.	Quarterly – Throughout the year

	Each year Manchester Airports Group contributes £100,000 to the Fund; any fines levied at aircraft that have breached our stringent noise limits are also paid in to the Fund. These funds are then used to support neighbourhood and community projects throughout the area. Applications are considered four times a year by a board of Trustees from Manchester Airport and the local authorities of Stockport, Trafford, Manchester, Tameside, Cheshire East and Cheshire West Council. This means that with great local insight and expertise, the Trustees evaluate applications using their knowledge to ensure the greatest possible benefit goes to the community. Funding Criteria To be successful a group MUST: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Carry out positive work in the community and be of charitable nature and be ‘Not for Profit’ status. • Be Community, Socially or Environmentally focused • Based within the area of benefit • The Project should offer / be: • Improve, enhance, protect and conserve the natural and built environment; or offer heritage conservation; • or promote or advance social welfare; • or provide better appreciation of the natural and urban environment; • or create a safe habitat for flora and fauna. • Demonstrate lasting benefit to the community. • Benefit all members of the community regardless of race, gender or religion. • Be from an established group or charity able to demonstrate clear banking or financial records, and not an individual or commercial organisation working for profit. For more information, visit - http://www.manchesterairport.co.uk/community/working-in-our-community/community-trust-fund/
Paul Hamlyn Foundation – Access and Participation Fund	The Paul Hamlyn Foundation is interested in ensuring that a wider and more diverse group of people have access to quality artistic practice. They are looking to fund organisations to test, implement and develop ambitious plans to widen access to and deepen participation in the arts. They will consider applications for: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • New ways of working, or work with new audiences and participants that aim to uncover alternative models of engagement – together with a strong commitment to learning about these approaches and sharing your learning • Work that involves any of the following: crafts, dance, design, digital arts and media, film, literature 	Rolling Deadline

	(including creative writing and poetry), music, opera, photography, theatre, the visual arts, and cross-arts practices <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Work that is focused on improving access to the arts as a social good in itself, promoting enjoyment, increased attendance and participation by people facing disadvantage and inequality of access • Work that is focused on increasing arts access for people who may face barriers to participation due to disability or a health condition. For detailed guidance on our current approach to supporting arts and health initiatives, please see 'What won't we fund' • Work that uses access to and participation in the arts to promote social justice (e.g. by achieving outcomes such as personal development, employability, educational attainment, social development, community cohesion, well-being, etc.) • Work that develops excellence in participatory practice for example, by including an element of training for artists working in participatory settings • Work that supports organisations to embed digital solutions in widening access and participation in the arts. For more information, visit - http://www.phf.org.uk/funds/access-and-participation-fund/#the-purpose-of-the-fund
Paul Hamlyn Foundation Youth Fund	The Paul Hamlyn Foundation Youth Fund has grants of between £10,000 and £60,000 available to not-for-profit organisations that work with vulnerable young people and that have the potential to widen their impact. The Foundation wants to fund organisations whose main purpose is about helping those in the most precarious positions, where making the transition to adult independence is most challenging, and those who are most vulnerable. This can include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Young people in poverty • Those who are unemployed • Those facing discrimination, abuse, victimisation or exploitation; etc. Projects can be funded for up to two years with the possibility of renewal in some cases. Whilst the Foundation will fund organisations in and around London, they also have a strong interest in and will prioritise support for those working in areas of social and economic deprivation elsewhere in the UK. This is an open process without deadlines. It has two stages. You can apply at any time. They encourage you to submit your application at the earliest point when it is ready. For more information, visit - http://www.phf.org.uk/funds/youth-fund/#how-to-apply	Rolling Deadline
Peter Cruddas Foundation	The foundation prioritises funding for programmes that help disadvantaged and disengaged young people across England and Wales, directing them into education, training and employment through charitable organisations. The foundation can only donate to Charity Commission registered charities in England and Wales that benefit young people – currently CIC's and Social Enterprises cannot be supported through this funding.	1st March 2017

	There is no minimum or maximum amount for funding, and projects can be funded for more than one year. However, the applicant must demonstrate that they can manage the amount that they have applied for, and how they intend to continue after the funding has been spent. Charities are encouraged to apply throughout the year and before the deadline so that the applications can be reviewed in due time. For more information, visit - http://petercruddasfoundation.org.uk/how_to_apply.htm
Ragdoll Foundation Open Grant Scheme	The Ragdoll Foundation’s Open Grant scheme supports not for profit organisations working with children and young people using the arts and creative media. Grants of up to £50k are available but the majority of grants awarded are likely to be in the region of £5k to £30k and cover between 25% and 80% of total costs. Organisations can apply for both one-off short-term projects and for projects lasting up to three years. Preference will be given to those projects which have a deep commitment to listening to children and allow the perceptions and feelings of children themselves to be better understood. The Foundations is mainly interested in applications that involve children during their early years, but appropriate projects for older children (up to 18 years) will also be considered. Whilst the Foundation will fund work in and around London, they will prioritise projects taking place elsewhere in the UK. Applications are accepted on a rolling basis though they will only make decisions on funding three times a year at their Trustee meetings in February, May and December. For more information, visit - http://www.ragdollfoundation.org.uk/portfolio/grant-giving	Rolling Deadline
The Rank Foundation	UK registered charities and recognised churches which are raising money for capital projects (building work, refurbishment or the purchase of long-term equipment) or a one-off short term activity (such as an annual respite break or holiday for disadvantaged young people) can apply for funding through the Rank Foundation – Small Appeals programme. To be eligible to apply the total project cost must be less than £1 million, the organisation must have an annual income of less than £500,000 and the organisation applying must already have raised a third of the total costs. 	innovative collaboration to support social enterprises and community projects across the UK. Community projects looking to support social change are now able to present their ideas on Crowdfunder.co.uk and unlock matched funding of up to £10,000 from Santander’s new Changemaker Fund. The new fund is open to social enterprises, small charities and community groups helping disadvantaged people in the UK. Eligible projects seeking funds of up to £20,000 and focussed on skills, knowledge and innovation that get the crowd’s backing will receive 50% (£10,000) of their funding requirement from Santander. For more information, and to apply visit - http://www.crowdfunder.co.uk/plus/santander/changemaker
Santander Foundation – ‘Discovery Foundation’	From March 2016, the Santander Foundation will be known as the Discovery Foundation. The change in name has been chosen to reflect the important role it will play in Santander UK’s new flagship community programme The Discovery Project, which aims to help disadvantaged people gain the confidence needed to make the most of their future. The pre-existing grant programmes – Community Plus, Money Skills and Learn and Grow – have all now been streamlined into one singular grant scheme, the Discovery Grant. These grants will support projects addressing knowledge, skills and innovation to give disadvantaged people the confidence to discover and create a new world of opportunities. The application process has been simplified, and Community Interest Companies and Credit Unions are now also able to apply alongside registered UK charities. Grants of up to £5,000 are available for projects which support one or more of the following three priority themes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Explorer – improving knowledge and insight: examples include a series of Money Management workshops to help people understand how to budget and identify the affordable credit choices available to them; a Freedom Training course giving abused women knowledge of how to regain control over their lives. • Transformer – developing skills and experience: examples include work-based training and mentors to help socially isolated people develop skills to get back into work; sign language training for parents with hearing impaired children; teaching young people with autism vocational skills. • Changemaker – innovative solutions to social challenges: examples include a new social networking program for visually impaired young people which uses specially developed braille laptops to access the internet; an inclusive cycling social enterprise which adapts bicycles to enable people with disabilities to enjoy the outdoors. Grants are available for one year only and can be used to cover the costs of part time salaries, equipment and materials. The Discovery Foundation wishes to fund a whole project, rather than	Rolling Deadline

- Education and learning (with a particular interest in people who are educationally disadvantaged, whether adults or children)

The Trust will not fund work that does not focus on one of the above priority groups.

The Trust only makes grants for core funding. Core funding is defined as the costs associated with regular activities or services that have been ongoing for at least a year. The Trust cannot fund new projects, extra services or additional delivery costs. This includes creating a paid post for work that is currently undertaken on a voluntary basis or rent for premises that are currently cost free.

The Trust can only offer grants to registered charities that have been formally established for a minimum of three years. Newly registered charities may apply but the organisation must have appointed a management committee and adopted a governing document at least 3 years ago.
